

Face Off With South Austin Issues

The South Austin Culture Club Presents

The Whole South Austin Enchilada

A salute South Austin's unique hispanic/Mexican eateries and to all the funky retail and fun goin's on.

"Come share our tortillas and enchiladas, amigos and amigas, and hear our great ones talk about the good times to come." --Benito Juarez (you know, the one who lives on South First Street)

We're singing to your heart, Amigo.
You will love this country,
South Austin.

The Featured Speaker is Jackie Goodman, Mayor Pro Tem, City of Austin

Jackie Goodman will be speaking on the topic, "The Way I See it." Jackie is no stranger to Austin neighborhood battles.

She's been on the Austin City fighting for us. She has worked with neighborhoods tirelessly to resolve their issues and to maintain the character and cultures of neighborhoods.

Jackie Goodman,
Mayor Pro Tem, City of Austin

Miller Crocket Bed and Breakfast
112 Academy Drive

May 29, 2002 - 11:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.

Food by Changos (Owners of Manuel's)

3005 Lamar, Suite 116
Cost $10 per person

RSVP by Friday, May 24!
Limited Seating!

And the Music of Ronnie Dittmar and Pop Tart

Plus a Rare, Humorous and Zany Opportunity to Face Off!
With Sean Kelly, President, Bouldin Creek Neighborhood Association and Clarke Hammond, South River City Association

Sean Kelly

Two of the biggest issues facing South Austin today:

- ◆ Should South Austin progress through gentrification?
- ◆ Should we preserve South Austin for Bubbas/Bubbetes and Beer?

Clarke Hammond

For Reservations call 512/619-7350 or email SoAcc@hotmail.com